Job Posting: Wellness Support Workers, Temporary

Have you been laid off? Are you bored? Are you the kind of person whose mental wellness depends on having a sense of purpose? If so, we NEED you. We are offering temporary (minimum two months) positions for people who like people. All you need is a healthy sense of self, an innate ability to de-escalate conflict and anxiety, and an excellent understanding of and ability to honour in your own practice and to educate others on what’s required to prevent the spread of sneeze diseases; and encourage everyone to practice same. You can work as many or as few shifts as you like. We appreciate any.

You will work in one of Atira Property Management Inc’s Single Room Occupancy (SRO) supportive housing programs, responsible for maintaining the safety and security of the building and tenants. Among other tasks, you will conduct building rounds, work to ensure only tenants and approved guests enter the building, distribute daily meals, assist with sanitizing and cleaning, respond to phone calls, take and pass on messages, liaise with doctors and nurse practitioners regarding Safe Supply, liaise with Vancouver Coastal Health regarding tenant medical needs, as well as with a number of other community partners. If required, you will provide direct care to people who have symptoms and may (or may not) be COVID-19 Positive. As this is a new position, duties may be added or revised. Training will be provided.

Application Process:
To apply, please send an email to jobs@atira.ca telling us why you are interested in this position and with a brief summary of your work experience. We will set up a Skype interview within 48 hours. Salary is $26.42/hour.
